SECTION I

General Information

Why You Need Emergency Coverage while in Canada

Health care costs in Canada are very expensive. Hospitals can charge thousands of dollars per day. Without emergency hospital and medical insurance, you or your eligible dependents or parents would be responsible for these high costs, which can create a significant financial burden. It is important to note that such expenses are covered provided that they were unexpected and of an emergency nature. The Plan does not provide benefits for medical treatment if the purpose of your trip to Canada is to obtain that medical treatment.

How It Works

You and your eligible dependents or parents are automatically covered under this plan, if you are a student, who is enrolled in a recognized institution of learning within Canada, an eligible dependent or parent, of foreign nationality, not a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada, and you are under age 69.

Here's What You Get

Broad Emergency Medical coverage and Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage while in Canada- Your plan provides extensive coverage for medical emergencies and Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage for the period in which you are in Canada.

SECTION II

Definitions

"Insured Person" means you, if you are a student who is enrolled in a recognized institution of learning within Canada, an eligible dependent or parent, of foreign nationality, not a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada, and you are under age 69.

Eligible Dependents:

"Spouse" means a person who is under the age of 69 and who is either legally married to you, or if there is no such person, is a person who, although not legally married to you, is cohabitating with you for a period of at least one year and is publicly represented as your domestic partner in the community in which you reside

"Dependent Child" means a person who is either your natural child, adopted child or step-child or a child to whom you are in loco parentis and who is (i) under 23 years of age, unmarried and dependent upon you for maintenance and support or (ii) under 26 years of age, unmarried and enrolled in post-secondary education and dependent upon you for maintenance and support and not employed for more than 25 hours per week; or (iii) by reason of mental or physical infirmity is incapable of self-sustaining employment and who is considered your Dependent Child within the terms of the Income Tax Act(Canada).

"Injury" means bodily injury which is sustained by an Insured Person as a direct result of an unintended and unanticipated accident that is external to the body, which causes a loss covered by the Policy.

"Sickness" means the onset of sickness or disease requiring medical treatment, care or advice which causes a loss covered by the Policy.

"Emergency" means medical treatment or surgery for an unforeseen Sickness or Injury which makes it necessary to receive immediate treatment from a Physician or Surgeon for the immediate relief of an acute symptom of which upon the advice of a Physician or Surgeon cannot be delayed until you or your eligible insured dependents return to your country of residence.

"Period of Coverage" means You and your eligible dependents are covered for emergency treatment under this plan while in Canada, or while outside of Canada provided at least 51% of your time is spent in Canada. It does not cover any expenses incurred during Home Country visits.

"Effective Date" means your coverage begins on the date you satisfy the definition of "Insured Person".

"Termination Date" means coverage ends on the earliest of: (1) the date the policy is terminated; (2) the premium due date if premiums are not paid when due; (3) the date you no longer satisfy the definition of an "Insured Person".

SECTION III
